

RACHEL DAWICK

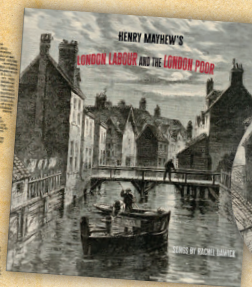

PRESENTS HENRY MAYHEW'S
LONDON LABOUR AND THE LONDON POOR

◆ 1851 ◆

Rachel Dawick returns with a new folk album and book, 'London Labour and the London Poor', based on Henry Mayhew's groundbreaking 1850s interviews with east Londoners.

Rachel's songs and stories focus on the voices of the people themselves: Jack Black, the Queen's Rat Catcher, the Mudlark, the Rhubarb and Spice Seller, The Acrobat, the Punch & Judy Man - and many more, creating a snapshot of life on the streets of Victorian London.
